

Books For River Runners

Publications Pertaining to Southeast Alaska

TATSHENSHINI RIVER & SURROUNDING AREA

1. TATSHENSHINI RIVER WILD $24.95
- This beautiful 10" x 10" soft cover book was originally produced to help combat plans for a huge copper mine in the Tatshenshini Corridor. In concert with this cause, three dozen of some of the continent's best outdoor photographers and over a dozen political and environmental leaders have unselfishly donated their images and words to the production of this book. A good visual preview of the river trip is found in the photographs. Personal testimonials provided by Vice President Al Gore; Mike Harcourt, Premier of British Columbia; Pierre Trudeau, and many other well known individuals. Full cover photos on every page. Summer Wild Productions; Westcliffe Publishers, 1993.

2. A NATURALIST'S GUIDE TO THE TATSHENSHINI-ALSEK, by Heather Hamilton. $9.95
- Written for the most part as a travel aid to private boaters, this little book has a lot of useful information about the flora and fauna along the Tatshenshini and Alsek rivers. Sections in the book include Modern History, Shaping the Land, Mammals, Tracks, Birds, Amphibians, Fish, Insects, Butterflies and Moths, Flowering Plants, Shrubs and Trees, Wildlife Viewing, and various checklists. Publisher, Sierra Club of Canada, 1996. Black and white, 5-1/2" x 8" (pamphlet style).

3. GLACIERS OF ALASKA, By the editors of ALASKA GEOGRAPHIC. $23.95
- An illustrated glossary and dozens of spectacular full-color photographs clearly explain the exotic vocabulary of glacier Anatomy and reveal the wonder of these massive rivers of ice. Glaciers of Alaska includes an area-by-area survey of the states glaciers from Rhode Island-sized Malaspina to diminutive Brooks Range cirque glaciers, and also ponders the future health of Alaska's living ice masses.

4. SOUTHEAST: ALASKA'S PANHANDLE, by the editors of Alaska Geographic. $12.95
- A beautiful volume about the scenic towns and villages and wilderness areas of Alaska's panhandle region (Juneau, Petersburg, Haines, Skagway, Glacier Bay, etc.)

5. ALASKA'S GLACIERS, by the editors of Alaska Geographic.

$12.95

This edition of Alaska Geographic provides information about one of the earth's most unusual features: the "living" ice masses so prevalent in Alaska. Learn the anatomy of a glacier, types of glaciers, all about Ice Age Alaska, and more. Beautifully illustrated with color photos and diagrams.

6. THE CHILKAT RIVER VALLEY, by the editors of Alaska Geographic.

$12.95

Ensnconed in an upper corner of southeastern Alaska, the Chilkat Valley blends climate, flora, and fauna of the coastal rain forest with that of the great interior land mass of Canada's Yukon Territory and a narrow strip of British Columbia. This is the southernmost nesting area for trumpeter swan in Alaska, the northernmost range of the snowberry shrub. This valley is the home of one of the most intensive concentrations of bald eagles in the world. Here in fabulous full-color photographs and quality text is the human and natural history of the area around Haines, Alaska.

7. THE KOTZEBUE BASIN, by the editors of Alaska Geographic.

$12.95

This area of northwest Alaska is a very unique section of the state. This volume of Alaska Geographic explores village life, hunting and fishing, native culture and more.

8. BROOKS RANGE PASSAGE, by David J. Cooper.

$14.95

Cooper describes his 37 days of solitary trekking through Northern Alaska's remote and awesome Brooks range. Joys, sorrows, hardships. Very absorbing. Hard cover.

9. SOUTHEAST ALASKA MAP

$4.95

Alaska's southeast panhandle area is detailed in a colorful map that pinpoints towns and villages, mountain peaks, bays, rivers, and glaciers, with interesting facts about the entire region.

10. A TOURIST GUIDE TO MOUNT MCKINLEY, by Bradford Washburn.

$5.95

This book takes the reader on a guided tour through the park and around North America's highest peak, Denali. Soft cover, 8 1/2 " x 11," 80 pages.

11. CHILKOOT PASS: THE MOST FAMOUS TRAIL IN THE NORTH, by Archie Satterfield.

$10.95

An excellent volume about the famous goldrush trail from Skagway to the Yukon River. Hiker's guide included. Soft cover, 8 1/2" x 5 1/2" 213 pages.

12. MT. MCKINLEY: A CLIMBER'S GUIDE, by Dennis Cowals.

$4.95

This 22" x 34" 4-color map is also a guide to climbing America's highest peak. It describes all major routes on the peak, in both English and Japanese.

13. MT. MCKINLEY: THE PIONEER CLIMBS, by Terris Moore

$14.95

This book highlights climbs on the highest peak in North America, from initial explorations into the 1940's. An entertaining history with maps and photos.

14. A MAP OF MT. MCKINLEY, ALASKA

$4.95

A full-color topographic map, 30" x 32," that includes neighboring peaks. Surveyed and edited by Bradford Washburn. Polyconic projection (1:50,000).

15. MILEPOST PLAN-A-TRIP MAP

$2.00

Alaska and western Canada are beautifully detailed on this large-scale, full-color map. 21" x 31," folded in a case.

16. A GUIDE TO THE BIRDS OF ALASKA, by Robert H. Armstrong and the editors of Alaska Magazine.

$15.95

The most complete guide book produced on birds in the 49th state. All 386 species found to date are represented. 359 color photos, 53 color illustrations.

17. ALASKA MAMMALS, by the editors of Alaska Geographic.

$12.95

Every mammal found in Alaska is included in this tasteful edition of Alaska Geographic. Filled with facts, figures and personal stories of encounters with Alaska's wildlife. There are 121 excellent photographs.

18. THE ALASKA-YUKON WILDFLOWER GUIDE, by the editors of Alaska Magazine.

$12.95

This popular field guide features both large color photos and detailed line drawings of each of the 160 species described.

19. NORTHWESTERN WILD BERRIES, by J.E. Underhill.

$7.95

A brightly illustrated and readable field guide that makes identification easy. Soft cover, 128 color photos, 96 pages.

20. NORTHWESTERN WILD HARVEST, by Terry Domico.

$5.95

A field guide to wild edibles with their seasons and cooking tips. Soft cover, 41 color photos, 88 pages.

21. THE NATURE OF SOUTHEAST ALASKA: A GUIDE TO PLANTS, ANIMALS, AND HABITATS, by Rita M. O'Clair, Robert H. Armstrong, and Richard Carstensen

$18.95

In this lively field guide to Southeast Alaska's natural world, you'll find everything from bears to banana slugs, mountains to murrelets. The unique features of this book gives in depth information about how wildlife coexists with the environment as well as detailed discussions of mammals, birds, fish, invertebrates, fungi, plants. 64 color photographs of species and habitats.

22. TLINGIT: THE ALASKA INDIAN, by Dan and Nan Kaiper.

$4.00

The art, culture, and legends of the native population in the area of Haines, Alaska. Soft Cover, 8 1/2 " x 5 1/2 ," 195 pages.

23. VISIONS OF THE NORTH: NATIVE ART OF THE NORTHWEST COAST, by Don and Debra McQuiston, Text by Lynne Bush, Photography by Tom Till

$19.95

With more than 130 beautiful color photographs and an illuminating text, Visions of the North celebrates the lush landscape of the Pacific Northwest and the rich artistic heritage of its native people. From totem poles and ceremonial masks to long houses and carved dugout canoes, the objects show-cased in Visions of the North offer designers, collectors, and travelers to the Pacific Northwest a compelling look at a timeless tradition.

24. SIMPLE METHODS OF MINING GOLD, Second Edition, by Terry R. Faulk

$4.00

A simple book on finding and mining placer gold. In it you will find the things you need to know about gold mining equipment and techniques. Regions known in the United States as placer gold areas are discussed.

END OF ALASKA BOOKLIST